

Safety:

Ensuring a safe work environment is an ingrained process in the electrical industry. Because of the dangers inherent in working with high energy systems, ECAH contractors and their highly trained IBEW workers have a much keener focus on safety than other construction trades. The purpose of this Safety Forum is to promote safety awareness, share information and resources to more effectively achieve our safety objectives. You are encouraged to make postings to this site.